IV. ALLEGATIONS

Count I: Transfer and concealment of property

64. All of the preceding paragraphs are realleged and incorporated herein by reference.
65. The Defendants obtained their discharge through fraud.
66. The Defendants' schedules, signed under penalty of perjury, assert that their farm assets were fully encumbered by creditors' security interests.
67. The Defendants' farm assets, including cows and inventory, are property of the estate. 11 U.S.C. § 541.
68. The Defendants further testified under oath at the meeting of creditors that their farm assets were fully encumbered and that, if liquidated, no equity would result for the estate.
69. Despite knowing that the cows and inventory were fully encumbered, the Defendants sold the cows and inventory after filing their petition.
70. The Defendants received at least $13,800 in proceeds from the post-petition sale of the cows and inventory.
71. The Defendants concealed the cow sales and receipt of proceeds from creditors by listing their minor child as the payee and by using the mailing address of Defendant Derek Van Asten's parents.

72. The Defendants concealed the inventory sales to Equity Cooperative and receipt of proceeds by using the mailing address of Defendant Derek Van Asten's parents.
73. Accordingly, the Defendants, with intent to hinder, delay, or defraud creditors and the Chapter 7 trustee, transferred and concealed property of the estate.
74. The United States Trustee did not know of the Defendants' fraud until after the Court granted the Defendants a discharge.
75. The foregoing provides grounds for the Court to revoke the Defendants' discharge pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 727(d)(1), 727(e)(1), and 727(a)(2).

Count II: False oaths

76. All of the preceding paragraphs are realleged and incorporated herein by reference.
77. The Defendants testified under oath at the meeting of creditors that they still had possession of the 21 cows listed within their schedules, and that such cows were fully encumbered.
78. Equity Cooperative's records show that the Defendants sold at least seven cows between the petition date and the meeting of creditors, generating nearly $4,500 in proceeds.
79. The Defendants knew that they had sold the cows when they testified at the meeting of creditors.
80. Accordingly, the Defendants knowingly and fraudulently made a false oath when they represented they still had possession of the 21 cows at the meeting of creditors.
81. The foregoing provides grounds for the Court to revoke the Defendants' discharge pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 727(d)(1), 727(e)(1), and 727(a)(4).

Count III: Failure to report and deliver property to the chapter 7 trustee

82. All of the preceding paragraphs are realleged and incorporated herein by reference.
83. The Defendants sold cows and inventory post-petition.
84. The Defendants received at least $13,800 in proceeds from the post-petition sales.

85. The post-petition sale proceeds are property of the estate. See 11 U.S.C. § 541(a)(6).
86. The Defendants directed that the proceeds be issued in the name of their minor child and sent to the address of Defendant Derek Van Asten's parents, rather than their own, in an effort to conceal the sales.
87. The Defendants knowingly and fraudulently failed to report the receipt of the sales proceeds to the Chapter 7 trustee.
88. The Defendants knowingly and fraudulently failed to deliver or surrender the sale proceeds to the Chapter 7 trustee.
89. The foregoing provide grounds for this Court to revoke the Defendants' discharge pursuant to §§ 727(d)(2) and 727(e)(2).

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests that the Court revoke the Defendants' discharge and for such other relief as is just and equitable. The United States Trustee reserves the right to supplement the complaint after conducting discovery.

Dated: January 10, 2017.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED:

PATRICK S. LAYNG
United States Trustee

LAURA D. STEELE
